Business Travel Insurance

Scope of cover

Business travel insurance provides medical and travel related insurances and emergency assistance services to employees to are travelling for business purposes.

Why purchase business travel insurance for your employees?

Business travel insurance is arranged by organisations that have employees/members travelling for work related purposes. Not only does it ensure that there is insurance in place for travel incidents but also for medical and non-medical emergencies that can occur when travelling interstate and overseas. Leisure travel options can also be added to this type of policy.
